For [young people] who are bombarded with negative images of our community, the Huntley Archives provides a personal, positive record of our community's activities and achievements in London during the 1970s and 80s. Like the Sankofa bird, the Huntley Archives looks back in order to guide our future progress. The Friends of the Huntley Archives at LMA (FHALMA) is the group that organises the annual Huntley conference. CLYDE WILLIAMS, FHALMA Trustee

THE YOUTH FORUM DEBATE

"WE ARE BETTER EDUCATED THAN OUR PARENTS!"

This year's conference will be pulling the Youth Forum into the very heart of the main conference day. After the morning Groundings Sessions and coffee break our young people will be having a debate with us.

They are saying, "We are better educated than our parents!" and they intend to challenge and explore this by discussing Availability and Access to education; What's happening in our schools; The gender issue; The class issue and the family.

THE GROUNDINGS SESSIONS

2 PROGRAMMES PARENTS SHOULD KNOW ABOUT!

Afua Kudom of The Challenge and Naomi Jane of SEO Scholars

School can't do everything. Learn about programmes which will give your child an edge in the education game. Summer camps, summer schools, and evening classes.

4 A STORY OF SUPPLEMENTARY EDUCATION FROM THE 1970s

Richard Wiltshire, Senior Archivist and Miss Rhonda Wilson, Chair, Caribbean Parents Group

Explore original items from LMA archives.

1 "WHY COULDN'T WE START A FREE SCHOOL?"

Anne Broni and others

What are the challenges and problems, what solutions can be adopted, how can parents assist?

3 ENGAGING NEW GENERATIONS WITH OLD HISTORY

Anthony Warner and Ruth Fisher

Meet the organiser of Black History Walks (BHW) which offers guided walking tours of London from an African/Caribbean perspective and a former education officer at Greenwich Maritime Museum.
